

Marijuana bust nets 81 plants

By Bill Kemp
Associate Editor

WALLSHORO — A Wallshoro couple were arrested last week after 81 marijuana plants were discovered growing on their property.

According to the Monroe County Sheriff's Department, the plants were growing in buckets with pills stored and them concealing them.

Initially, someone noticed some

plants

in the yard

and called the police.

The police

found the plants

and arrested the couple.

The couple

are now in jail.

The plants

were found in the yard

and the couple

are now in jail.

The plants

BUSINESS
are of the 81 marijuana plants that were counted Central Alabama Drug Task Force from a house at 1000 N. 10th St. in Montgomery.

The plants were found in the yard of the house at 1000 N. 10th St. in Montgomery.

The plants were found in the yard of the house at 1000 N. 10th St. in Montgomery.